Exclusive Luxury Hotels Slated to Debut in 2022

PENNY EXPERIENCE

A spate of new hotels arrived in 2021, and 2022 is also looking bright for debuts. Coming from big players like Hyatt and IHG as well as independent hoteliers, this year's openings convey a strong sense of place while spotlighting history, design, wellness, and gastronomy. From the Windy City to Vietnam, here's a selection of luxury properties slated to launch this year.

Perched on the northern coast of Mallorca, Spain, Hotel El Vicenc de la Mar from the lifestyle hotel group Mallorca C Collection is scheduled to launch in April. The property will house 35 rooms, five suites, a multi-tiered rooftop terrace with a pool, and two restaurants steered by acclaimed Chef Santi Taura. A dreamy locale adds to the hotel's allure, revealing dramatic Mediterranean and Tramuntana mountain views.

"With the beach just steps from the property, in fine weather months, this is magical because you don't need a car or bike," says Rubén Zamora, the company's General Director. "Just step outside the front door to Cala Molins, a sparkling bay, one of four bays in the area."
