Where To Stay In 2022: THE TOP NEW HOTELS, PART 2

EL VICENÇ DE LA
MAR, MALLORCA,
SPAIN
April 2022

The latest boutique hotel to open in Mallorca is the sister property to El Llorenç, the design hotel found in the capital city of Palma. The new opening, El Vicenç De La Mar, by contrast, is found on the north side of the island, in Calla Sant Vicenç, an area which grew in popularity in the 1950s and 1960s due to its untouched beaches and secret coves. Putting it back on the map is the new boutique bolthole, which has 35 rooms, including four suites and one penthouse, many with private terraces, Jacuzzis and swimming pools.

A central feature is the rooftop terrace with a swimming pool, cocktail bar and restaurant, offering views across to the Sierra Tramuntana Mountains. Chef Santi Taura heads up the two in-house restaurants with his take on traditional island recipes and seasonal products.

As well as a library, there's also a small Mediterranean-styled cinema, spa and a host of activities to immerse guests in the natural beauty found on the doorstep.
